Fine
de Young Arts Museum of San Francisco

Founded in 1895 in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park, the de Young Museum has been an integral part of the cultural fabric of the city and a cherished destination for millions of residents and visitors to the region for over 100 years including recently Charles, the Prince of Wales and Camilla, the Duchess of Cornwall.

On October 15, 2005, the de Young Museum re-opened in a state-of-the-art new facility that integrates art, architecture and the natural landscape in one multi-faceted destination that will inspire audiences from around the world. Designed by the renowned Swiss architecture firm Herzog & de Meuron and Fong & Chan, the new de Young provides San Francisco with a landmark art museum to showcase the museum's priceless collections of American art from the 17th through the 20th centuries, and art of the native Americas, Africa, and the Pacific.

The Granada tour, we 27, enjoyed a two hour visit before going home. We shall return, often.

Sam, Bob, Natalie, Tom, Hilary, Sylvia and Paul enjoyed it.

Granada Cruise to Sausalito

by Kevin B. McGlynn

Mary, Neil and Vivian hand in hand.

The tour bus appeared at the our front door about fifteen minutes before departure giving everyone plenty of time to board. Off we went to Pier One, which is behind the Ferry Building (the one with the clock tower), and onto the Golden Gate Ferry trip to Sausalito. All aboard and in ten minutes we cast off for a pleasant 25 minute bay cruise across the bay to Sausalito. The Golden Gate Ferry crew helped our travellers every step of the way, treating our Granada senior like diplomats. Three decks, so take your pick, nothing but view, although the weather report rang out "partially cloudy" fortunately, it was shining for us. As soon as we arrived Lester Gomez started serving the lunch that he had made earlier, in the Granada kitchen; your choice of tuna or turkey sandwich and all the rest, potato chips and Oreal cookies and ginger ale, root beer or orange juice. Peter Gary, Andy, Lester and Katie on and Leon, Gary and Neil. at the dock.

Romanowski, a Sausalito personality and his famous dog, Cagey, kept everyone smiling and he enjoyed a sandwich with us as well. After lunch, some went walking about Sausalito's main street, Bridgeway, viewing art galleries and curiosity shops while others like myself and the seals, just laid around in the beautiful weather looking at our beautiful home across the bay. Two hours later back on the ferry and the bay and our bus which was there at he terminal waiting to take us back to the

Granada after yet another successful Sausalito adventure; "easy does it."

Halloween

If you go out to the lounge tonight, you're in for a big surprise. All the enchanting folk gathered 'round.

Delia serves the "witches brew" to a couple of you know

Anne Hessel in beautiful form and Alex with a cup of "brew."

Tony awards prizes for best costume to Donna Schuck and Doris Benetar.

Tony's Newsletter Column

We will be having our Christmas Tree Decorating Party on or about December 13th. Our Christmas Party will be Friday, December 23rd - the same day as the Christmas Dinner. We figured that some residents would be going away with relatives for that weekend so the celebration will be a couple of days before Christmas and Hunakkah too.

The City and County of San Francisco, Department of Public Health, environmental health section inspected our dining room and gave it a score of 98 out of 100. Thanks Inspector Merlin Tyler.

We corrected the other 2%.

It's that time of year when we think back to the past year and look forward to the birth of a new one. I hope all your wishes come true and that you and yours have a Merry Christmas and a bright New Year.

The management and staff of the Granada look forward to serving you and keeping you entertained in 2006.
