There's nothing more still and special, fragrant and colorful, majestic and simple than an afternoon in Muir Woods. About 25 of us departed from the Granada's front door in our beautiful red Coach America bus, which even prompted one voyager to say "I thought a school bus would pull up but this!" so we're off. Over the Golden Gate Bridge, the world's favorite, to Marin county, over hill, over dale and 22 miles later, we're in the John Muir National Monument.

Today Muir Woods stands as a reminder of the way much of the surrounding Marin County land once appeared. Here may be found an environment which can heighten our awareness of the gaps between "progress" of the 20th Century technology and the quality of our lives.

Helga and Phyllis pointing out to each other rings of ancient time around these old growth redwoods. Gertie, Hilaria entrance while Mr. Lee friend and our three-redwood. Judith Jette and Mary pose and there's Hilaria at the enjoys himself with a walk in the woods. A some Gertie, Hilaria and Mary sit next to giant is full of vim and Hilaria is making a point.

The menu of ribs, corn on the cob, potato salad, baked beans and apple pie ala mode seemed to please table for one, next to four feasting folks, Arthur Reiniri, Harry Miller, Kevin Campbell and Virginia Bur... Don Nitto and Yvonne Stagnaro. Don Wright, the dinning room manager for the occasion with his gold... and Doris Benetar living it up plus Dr. Albert Wu and friend giving a happy wave.

Corbett Meadows and Erlinda Kapadia, companions, share a moment, Cecilia Peshe looking very relaxed... looking wonderful as does Mary Finnigan who always revels at the Granada goings on. This was a big... remind us and everyone who crosses our doorway that we have been here a long time and will continue...

It was so hot today, I was sure it was almost winter. So let's look forward to November 27th the Granada Thanksgiving Dinner and I'm told about a luncheon tour to the new Aquatic Park Senior Center followed by pictures from the Marin headlands with the Golden Gate and San Francisco in the background. Rain, we haven't had a lot of it in the last few years so when you use the "tap" think conservation like a good Californian. April, my daughter, will be joining the family for Thanksgiving returning from USC where she is a busy doctoral candidate. November 4th is almost here, two candidates for supervisor came to the "Granada townhall meetings", district 3 's Chiu and Alioto. Election night we will have the "big screen TV" for coverage and some refreshments to see it part way through. Were you one of the Halloween costume winners? We had a few winners this year plus the music was great, supplied by our own Emmett Kennedy, I'm sure I saw dancing goblins. My door is always open. Thanks.

Tony Davidauskis, manager

Singing "Happy Birthday" is traditional in the Granada, as you can see everyone is singing led by Tony Davidauskis, your manager. All you have to do is make a wish and blow out the candle. Photograph by Clinton Frutiger
